Proofreading—5th Grade

Proofreading is when you read what you have written to make sure that you have used punctuation and capitalization correctly, as well as spelled correctly. You should also check for correct grammar, such as subject and verb agreement.

Rewrite the paragraph, correcting each mistake. There are 10 mistakes total.

Dad I think it is time for me to get a cell phone. Yes it will be a new responsibility but there are several reasons why I need one. A cell phone would be useful to call home take pictures and even look up information for homework. Remember last year when I had to read the book where the red fern grows and write a paper? I will use a cell phone to looked up information for that paper. A cell phone is expensive isn't it? Well I can help pay for it by doing chores around the house. Thank you for your time, Dad!

Dad, I think it is time for me to get a cell phone. Yes, it will be a new responsibility, but there are several reasons why I need one. A cell phone would be useful to call home, take pictures, and even look up information for homework. Remember last year when I had to read the book

Where the Red Fern Grows and write a paper? I could have used (or used) a cell phone to look up information for that paper. A cell phone is expensive, isn't it? Well, I can help pay for it by doing chores around the house. Thank you for your time, Dad!
