

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sentence or Fragment

Remember, a fragment is not a complete sentence. It does not have both a subject and a verb. For a sentence to be complete, it must have both a subject and a verb, and express a complete thought.

Example: After the game. This is a fragment because it doesn't have a subject and a verb or express a complete thought.

Decide if each group of words is a fragment or a complete sentence. Write your answer on the line provided.

1. Because we left early. _____
2. I left the bag. _____
3. Brown chair in the corner of the room. _____
4. Left crackers on the table. _____
5. Lisa smiled. _____
6. White door at the end of the hallway. _____
7. The pearl was lost on the floor. _____
8. Cooking dinner for her family. _____
9. To see my grandmother in Atlanta. _____
10. Before the sun rises in the morning. _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answers Sentence or Fragment

Remember, a fragment is not a complete sentence. It does not have both a subject and a verb. For a sentence to be complete, it must have both a subject and a verb, and express a complete thought.

Example: After the game. This is a fragment because it doesn't have a subject and a verb or express a complete thought.

Decide if each group of words is a fragment or a complete sentence. Write your answer on the line provided.

1. Because we left early. _____ fragment _____
2. I left the bag. _____ sentence _____
3. Brown chair in the corner of the room. _____ fragment _____
4. Left crackers on the table. _____ fragment _____
5. Lisa smiled. _____ sentence _____
6. White door at the end of the hallway. _____ fragment _____
7. The pearl was lost on the floor. _____ sentence _____
8. Cooking dinner for her family. _____ fragment _____
9. To see my grandmother in Atlanta. _____ fragment _____
10. Before the sun rises in the morning. _____ fragment _____