

Name: _____

Date: _____

Predicates

Every sentence has a subject and a predicate. The predicate tells us what the subject is doing, and it always includes a verb. The verb is the simple predicate, and all of the other words that give us more information about what the subject is doing are the complete predicate.

Example: Josh ate pizza.

The simple predicate is "ate," because it is a verb and tells us what Josh is doing.

The complete predicate is "ate pizza."

Underline the complete predicate in each sentence. Write the simple predicate on the line provided.

1. Caroline ran a race. _____
2. Joseph cut his finger. _____
3. Mrs. Taylor gave us homework for tonight. _____
4. I read the book in one day! _____
5. My mom went grocery shopping. _____
6. Dad painted our new fence brown. _____
7. The snow fell all night long. _____
8. The cat scared Lisa and Mark. _____
9. The zoo closes early on Sundays. _____
10. The plate broke into five pieces. _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answers Predicates

Every sentence has a subject and a predicate. The predicate tells us what the subject is doing, and it always includes a verb. The verb is the simple predicate, and all of the other words that give us more information about what the subject is doing are the complete predicate.

Example: Josh ate pizza.

The simple predicate is "ate," because it is a verb and tells us what Josh is doing.

The complete predicate is "ate pizza."

Underline the complete predicate in each sentence. Write the simple predicate on the line provided.

1. Caroline ran a race. _____ ran _____
2. Joseph cut his finger. _____ cut _____
3. Mrs. Taylor gave us homework for tonight. _____ gave _____
4. I read the book in one day! _____ read _____
5. My mom went grocery shopping. _____ went _____
6. Dad ainted our new fence brown. _____ ainted _____
7. The snow fell all night long. _____ fell _____
8. The cat scared Lisa and Mark. _____ scared _____
9. The zoo closes early on Sundays. _____ closes _____
10. The plate broke into five pieces. _____ broke _____